

Private Policy

Your privacy is important to us. Charlotte Community Health Clinic protects the privacy of its supporters at all times. We will not solicit or share our donors' or visitors' information with outside parties. Information collected from donors and visitors shall be used for internal use only and we will maintain fitting security measures to keep this information private and secure.

Charlotte Community Health Clinic will share personally identifiable information with a third party if (i) we are required to by law (ii) it is necessary for completing an authorized operation, for instance a credit card transaction, or (iii) if the person submitting the information asks that it be shared.

We have partnered with online payment processor to collect online donations and process credit card transactions. We selected this provider for their professionalism and because they maintain high levels of security for our users. We cannot, however, assume responsibility for their actions since they are independent payment processors, similar in many respects to your own credit card company.

If you have questions about this privacy policy, please contact us at: 704-316-6561 and ask for the Community Development Director.
